ONE DAY

LATER PROPERTED FOR

ARRIVAL OF THE WASHINGTON.

The U.S. Mail Steamship Washington, Capt. FLOYD, arrived here yesterday afternoon, in nine teen days from Southampton, whence she said-d on the 15th ult. The Washington brings us London papers of Saturday, the 19th, one day's later details than we received by the Canada. We give the following items:

The Washington sailed from Bremenhaven on the 18th ult. having been detained in the River Weser for 24 hours beyond her appointed hour of departure by a violent gale of wind. She finally left Southampton on the morning of the 20th Oc tober. She brings 165 passengers, and a consid-tober. She brings 165 passengers, and a considerable cargo of general merchandise, including 150 tuns goods from Bremen, and about 60 tuns measurement from Havre and Southampton.

The United States Mail Steamer Franklin, Capt J H Walton, arrived at Havre on the evening of the 18th October, having performed the voyage from New-York to Havre, including the detour to and detention at Cowes, in 13 days, a distance of 3,275 nautical miles. The magnificent appearance and propertions of the Franklin excited a great deal of attention and admiration in Havre.

The West India mail steamship Thannes arrived at Southampton from Charres and the Spanish main just before the Washington sailed. She had on freight $1,300,000, of which nearly $1,000,000 were in gold from California.

Accounts from Madrid state that the Ministerial crisis appeared to be adjourned, but every one was of opinion that the respite would be a short one. The Cabinet was making great efforts to get over the 1st November, the period of the opening of the Cortes. The troops which sailed from Cadiz on the 8th October for Havana formed an effective force of 65 officers and 1,204 rank and an effective force of 65 officers and 1,204 rank and file. ### SCHLESWIG. A letter dated Hamburg, Oct. 15, says

From the seat of war the only intelligence is that of a minor misfortune that befell an Holstein outpost yesterday; an officer and twenty-five men, on held duty on the south bank of the Treene toward Schwabstedt, were surprised during the night by a Danish patrol and made prisoners. A very careless lookout must have been kept at the post; but as the whole party is captured no inquiry can be instituted.

In explanation of the late desertions, it is stated that they are confined to the newly enlisted re-cruits from different parts of Germany, and that no cruits from different parts of Germany, and that no native of the Duchies is among them. There is no doubt many worthless vagabonds are attracted to the seat of war, whose principal object is the bounty money of 10 thalers given on enlistment, and who make no scruple of deserting as soon as possible after it is obtained.

possible after it is obtained.

The following is the only account of the actual extent of the damage done to the town of Friede-extent of the damage done to the town of Friederichstadt that has yet been given:

"The place is now nothing but a heap of rulas, for the few buildings the flames have spared are so statered by the pleavy baths and shells, that they also are little better than fragments. All the eastern part of the town is burnt, and the southers portion as far as the market place—only something of what is called the back town remains. The ferry, the house on the island, the Town Hall, churches, chapels and schools, have all fallen a prey to the flames.—No inhabitants remain in it. The three great locks by which the Treene was connected with the Eyder are shattered by shot; the corn sull and mother mit are also destroyed; in a word, Friederichstadt has ceased to exist.

Some of the inhabitants continued to save their furniture and goods during the first days of the

some of the innorms continued to save their furniture and goods during the first days of the attack, but many have lost all they possessed; they have all taken refuge in and around Husum and the towns to the north, as they cannot cross the frontier into Holstein. It is not even yet known how many of the people of the place have lost their lives.

The news from France, Germany, Spain, and other parts of the Continent, contains nothing far ther of importance.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA. Another Fire in San Francisco.

A telegraphic dispatch from New-Orleans announces the arrival of the steamship Alabama from Chagres, at that city, with later news from California. According to the dispatch, there has been another destructive conflagration in San Franciscothe third within six months. A large amount of gold dust-$3,000,000 it is stated-was expected by the steamers from San Francisco.

A Base Calemay Refuted—To the Electors of the His Congressional District—I notice that an anonymous calumniator caused to be published in the Brooklyn Eagle, in hand-bill form, through Kings County, an assertion that I have expressed opposition to Fire Schools. This I pronounce to be a deliberate political valsation! I have never on any occasion attered a sentiment adverse to the precion of Public Schools.

On the contrary, I always have and shall aid in the promotion of the means of education as the nation's safeguard. Neither have I ever cast a scornful remark concerning my adopted fellow citizens or their children! These talse charges are made to prejudice the minds of those for whom they are intended, and are so foully false that the calumniator has not dured to add his name to his fabrication.

THE VOICE OF GEORGIA.

SAVANNAR, Friday, Nov. 1.

The friends of the Union, in Chatham County, Ga. met in large numbers in this city, for the purpose of showing their approval of and ratifying the compromise measures passed by Congress at its late session. Spirited addresses were delivered by a number of eminent speakers, and resolutions were adopted avowing the determination of the meeting to stand by the Union and maintain the compromise, as the only means of preserving peace. The meeting throughout was most enthusiastic.

De Vesterday was a dismal Sunday. A blank nd gray sky, which neither dissolved in rain nor suffered the slighest appearance of a sun to be seen-a thick, raw, clammy atmosphere, too warm in-doors for fire and yet too cold without it-and a general lack of elastic or magnetic influences, both in the human and physical atmospheres: all these were quite enough to make a dull day. Life seemed a thing to be endured rather than enjoyed, and its possession a matter of less im-

THE OPERA TO-NIGHT-PARODI'S FIRST AP-PEARANCE-Every seat in the Opera House, except some of those in the amphitheater, has already been sold for this evening, and the fortunate holders of tickets, who have any to dispose, of now demand double price. The admission to the am . phitheater, as will be seen by the advertisement in another column, has been fixed at $1. The ac counts of Paroni's fame which preceded her, have greatly stimulated the public curiosity to hear her, and her first appearance to-night will be an occasion of great interest.

There were two rehearsn's of Norma on Saturday, to which the musical members of the Press and a few other persons were admitted. It is not our business to criticize Parcon's personation of the Druid priestess in advance of its public performance, for we are aware that an artist cannot be fairly judged in the neglige of a rehearsal. We may mention, however, the surprise and delight with which the new prima donna was listened to, and the universal conviction of all pre sent, that as a queen of the lyric drama she has never been approached by any one we have heard since the days of Malibran. He voice has a com pass of three octaves, reaching to C, but is most remarkable in its contralto tones, the volume and power of which are truly wonderful. She is scarcely above the medium hight, and has features not too beautiful to harmonize with the stern and impassioned character of her acting in Norma. She is, we should judge, about twentyfive years of age. In appearance, voice and style she is as different from Jenny Lind as it is possible for two vocalists to be, and there can be no fairness in judging her by the same standard. The hearing of both, now that our citizens enjoy the rare opportunity, is too good a musical study

There was but a limited amount of business done is Stocks, but prices have undergone no material fluctuation. Morris Canal, Reading Railroad Bonds and Girard, have slightly improved, but Reading shares are a little lower. Exchange (on England continues to rule at 1 1926) 111, figures too low to justify the slipment of American Gold though they enable brokers to slip Swerigas and Silver. The Monky market continues casy The Banks are discounting all the good paper offered, and the limited are discounting all the good paper offered, and the limited are discounting all the good paper offered, and the limited are discounting all the good paper offered, and the limited are discounting all the good paper offered, and the limited unusually large and profitable business extra dividends. The same remark will apply to most of the country Banks. The same remark will apply to most of these received.
